SENIOR COMPANIONS

What Do Senior Companions Do? It's All About Person to Person...

That's the essence of a Senior Companion in action: Giving the same kind of boost that usually comes from a friend. Joking over a cup of coffee as well as offering a ride to the doctor, picking up prescriptions or doing some light grocery shopping. Talking about old times. Senior Companions help ease loneliness. Senior Companions do not replace other workers.

Who are Senior Companions? They are selected adults age 55 and above who help certain adults, including developmentally disabled or mentally ill adults in foster care facilities, assisted living homes, nursing homes and in their homes. Their efforts are aimed at helping others live as fully and independently as possible.

Senior Companions Receive...

- ◆ A modest, tax-free stipend that does not affect their eligibility for other benefit programs such as Social Security, food stamps, etc.
- ◆ Daily meal
- ◆ Yearly physical examination
- ◆ Monthly training
- ◆ Forty hours of orientation
- ◆ Transportation
